Advanced Seminar in Industrial Spychology

Semester A, Term 1

Day: Wednesday

Time: 4:30-18:30

Room: 424

Lecturer: Prof. Arzi Merez

Email: merez@ie.technion.ac.il

The seminar focuses on the industrial psychology of central figures in various topics and the acquisition of knowledge. The seminar is designed for students who want to strengthen their understanding of industrial psychology. The topics covered include: organisational behavior, psychology of humans and their resources, work and leisure, work groups, leadership, organisational culture, global work environment, symbols in the organisation, emotions, decision-making, and the technical and psychological aspects of the computer.

Requirements:

- Active participation in lectures and discussion of the material before each lecture. Seminar participants are required to read the material before each lecture.

The evaluation criteria are as follows:

- Participation in the course activities and discussion of the material: 20%
- Work submitted during the semester: 40%
- Work submitted at the end of the semester: 40%

Topics for the seminar:
- Articles from 2003:

Topics for the notes:

Chapter 1 - Introduction to engineering psychology and human performance. pp 1-17.

Chapter 5 - Navigation and interaction in real and virtual environments.